LARGE HOUSE BURNS

RESIDENCE OF FANNIE BRIGGS CARR BURNS TO THE GROUND

Friday morning about 10:25 the seven room residence, belonging to Fannie Briggs Carr, at 580 East Broadway caught fire and burned to the ground.

The house was leased by E. Robbins and the fire was first discovered by his daughter, Mrs. C. R. Peck, who promptly turned in the alarm. The Glendale fire department quickly responded to the call, but through ineffectiveness of their chemicals and shortage of water were unable to fight the blaze, which unhindered burned the house to the foundations in less than an hour. The water pressure was so low that it was impossible even to throw a stream of water high enough to put out a smouldering fire on a large combination power and telephone pole belonging to the Glendale and Eagle Rock Railway which was set aflame by flying embers.

All the household effects of Mr. Robbins and Mrs. Peck were saved, with the exception of a gas range and some articles stored in the attic, which was indeed fortunate as no insurance was carried on the furniture.

The fire started from a defective chimney flue, which was supposed to have recently been repaired. The fire might have been an exceedingly costly affair had the weather not been unusually calm, as it would have been impossible to have saved any of the nearby buildings had they once caught on fire. The fire serves as an object lesson—not only proving that Glendale needs a better fire fighting apparatus, but that fire hydrants and water are needed in order that such equipment may be used.

LEAGUE DEBATE

Tonight at 8 o'clock at the High School Auditorium the first league debate of the year will take place. The question debated is "Resolved, That (granting there should be further restriction of immigration to the U. S.) Congress should pass a law embodying the numbers test, on the 10% basis, as advocated by Senator Dillingham."

The affirmative will be upheld by Berna Martin and David Johnston of the Glendale High School. The Santa Ana High School represented by Virgil Pentecost and Robert Hill, will sustain the negative.

Kenneth Beldin will be the chairman of the evening.

The judges will be Dr. W. D. Ward of Occidental College, Mr. Trover of Polytechnic High School, and Mr. Stephen Myrick of Hollywood High School.

Glendale's negative team, consisting of Harlan and Samuel Durand, will go to Pomona this evening.

The admission to the local debate is 10c.

Come out and hear an interesting debate tonight.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE

BEAUTIFUL CEREMONIES MARK EASTERN STAR INSTALLATION.

New officers of Glen Eyrie Chapter, O. E. S. were installed Thursday evening, December 7 with the beautiful ceremonies peculiar to the order, Mrs. Warren Quincy Roberts, retiring worthy matron acting as installing officer. The installation was held in Masonic Temple, the chapter room having been elaborately and beautifully decorated befitting the occasion. Callas and white roses in abundance lent their purity and beauty and fern balls suspended from the ceiling down each side of the long room produced a novel effect. There was a canopy of English ivy over the pedestal in the East and the pedestal itself was banked with white carnations and roses. Over the altar in the center of the room was suspended a large star covered with plumosis fern. In each point of the star was a smaller silver star from which bleamed an electric light of color appropriate to that point. Mrs. C. O. Pullian and her capable committee were responsible for the beautiful effect produced in the decorations.

At the appointed hour, the meeting was called to order by the Worthy Patron, Warren Quincy Roberts who instructed the Installing Marshal, Miss Harriett Nichols to escort the installing officer, Mrs. Fern Roberts into the Chapter room. Following this the Installing Marshal and the Installing Chaplain escorted the Past Worthy Matrons and the Past Worthy Patrons of Glen Eyrie into the room and they were introduced by Mrs. Roberts after which the officers elect came, attended by the proper officers and ceremonies. Each one who came before the assemblage carried a shower bouquet of violets, ferns and Cecil Bruner roses. The flowers and the many pretty gowns helped to make the scene an especially beautiful and brilliant one.

Mrs. Fern Roberts who endeared herself to the Chapter during the past year by her devotion to Glen Eyrie as Worthy Matron and her gracious spirit of co-operation with the officers who served with her conducted the installation ceremony in a very accurate and charming way. The long and difficult ritual was committed perfectly and many of those present expressed their pleasure in the way Mrs. Roberts performed her duties. Other installing officers were: Miss Harriett Nichols, marshal; Miss Fredonia Borthick, chaplain, and Miss Alice Grey Beach, organist, all of whom took their parts perfectly.

The installation service was interspersed with beautiful music. Miss Dorothy Armstrong who is known as a talented violinist delighted the company with her music and Mrs. Frances Hellyer proved herself a vocalist of rare merit.

The following officers will serve Glen Eyrie Chapter for the coming year:

Lilian Rae Beamon, worthy matron; Robert M. Grumbling, worthy patron; Della Echols, associate matron; Pearl C. Tower, P. M., secretary; Alice M. Carvel, treasurer; Mary Garnet Pollock, conductress; May Cornwell, Adah; Orma Vesper Naudain, Ruth; Blanche L. Peterson, Esther; Marion Ogg, Martha.

Mrs. Mary Garnet Pollock, conductress-elect could not be present and her place for the evening was very graciously filled by Miss Olive Williams.

Following the installation, Mrs. A. M. Beamon and Robert M. Grumbling, the new Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron, made appropriate and clever speeches. Mr. Roberts introduced Mrs. Pearl Collins Tower who presented the Past Matron's jewel to the retiring Worthy Matron, Mrs. Roberts in a very beautiful and touching presentation speech. Mrs. Roberts was also the recipient of a handsome bracelet presented by Mrs. Beamon in behalf of the officers who served with her the past year.

Mrs. Roberts responded very happily expressing her joy in the work of Glen Eyrie that fell to her lot and the pleasant associations of the past year. She concluded with the following clever verses:

In the San Fernando Valley, where the earth is richly blessed,
With all the charms of nature that put our troubled hearts at rest,
There is a little city that from all which I have known,
Is the cleanest and the fairest in which to make a home.
Now with setting that is perfect, and the people good and true
I should know their Eastern Star would be the finest, wouldn't you?
This order stands for purity, for faith and all in life,
That is good and true and noble and make living worth the strife.
So if you have a husband or a father, brother, friend,
Who has braved the third degree of Masonry and his Masonic life begun
Just ask for a petition to join this order high and grand
And I know you soon will agree with us that we are the best in all the land.
We have ladies that are capable and talented and kind
And if you hunt around a bit oftimes a gentleman you'll find.
But do not be discouraged if their number may be small,
I think we'll have a goodly crowd before another fall.
So here's to you Glen Eyrie Chapter with your principles fine and true,
May we make our lives more worthy since we're bound so close by you.

Miss Cora Hickman and Mr. Daniel Campbell spoke appropriately in behalf of the Past Worthy Matron and Past Worthy Patrons respectively. After the ceremonies of the evening were complete, congratulations for all were in order and a very happy evening came to a close.

POULTRY SHOW ENDS

CURTAIN DROPS ON GLENDALE'S MOST SUCCESSFUL POULTRY SHOW

The curtain dropped on the Third Annual Poultry Show last night and the show is now a matter of history. While the total attendance of the three days was not what it should have been, it was gratifying to the management considering the fact that there were many social and lodge events booked for this week, which cut down the attendance of the big show.

The Glendale-Tropico Poultry Associations are more determined than ever to place Glendale on the poultry map of California, and well they should be. The judges who judged this show were men of high standing in this State and some of them have a national reputation as expert poultrymen and judges, and they were unanimous in saying that this community had a class of poultry that was among the best to be seen anywhere in the State, and on their advice the show next year will be thrown open to the entire State, and the association has the every reason to believe that our next show will be the largest show held in the State outside of Los Angeles. As one enthusiast was heard to remark, "It should be just as easy and as possible to have the Glendale-Tropico Poultry Show as popular and to do as much towards advertising Glendale and community as the Annual Tournament of Roses has done for our sister city, Pasadena."

The president, Dr. G. Irwin Royce in a few well selected remarks made the speech in presenting the different prizes and trophies, and occasionally caused a great deal of merriment by his witty remarks.

A general good time was enjoyed at the last session of the show and it seemed more of a get-together meeting than anything else and every exhibior went home with a full determination to be ever on the alert to improve their stock and be ready with bigger and better dsplays for the next annual show.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY DECEMBER 8, 1916.

AT GLENDALE HIGH

FIRST LEAGUE DEBATE—GIRLS EXHIBIT WORK—FROSH TO PROVIDE FIREWOOD.

Two events of unusual importance will attract attention at the high school Friday. One is the exhibit and candy sale of the domestic arts department; the other is the big league debate.

The rooms in charge of Miss Holloway, Mrs. Scott and Miss Hanson will be open to the public all day. Tea will be served in the cooking room during the afternoon, and the work of the departments will be on exhibit. Everyone is invited to come and examine the accomplishments of the girls.

Candy will be on sale for the benefit of the Girls' League Christmas fund for the needy, which the girls are trying so hard to swell. Their realization of the sufferings of the poor while in the midst of the happiest part of their lives certainly merits commendation, and they should at least receive the good will of the public.

The girls of the sewing class plan to spend all their class time until the holidays in making clothes for the Christmas fund. Any old garments that can be re-built or utilized in any way will be received.

Berna Martin and David Johnston will uphold the honors of Glendale High on the affirmative of the question, "Resolved, That granting there should be further restriction of immigration to the U. S., Congress should pass a law embodying the number test, on the 10 per cent basis, as advocated by Senator Dillingham," Friday evening in the Auditorium, against Santa Ana.

This was announced yesterday by Mr. Root, following the failure of Herbert Scheuner and Marion Lehman to return from San Diego, where they recently journeyed in a Packard belonging to the prominent Socialist leader. The Packard evidently had some I. W. W. parts which refused to work.

The Durand brothers, Samuel and Harland, will debate the negative of the question in Pomona. They will be accompanied by Mr. Root, debating instructor, who has been working heroically to whip the teams into shape. It is no small task to get up a good debate in five days.

A lively ten minute assembly of the boys of the school met just before 3 o'clock Wednesday. Last minute plans for the big high-jinks to be held on the campus Thursday night were made. The "eats" committee, on motion of Mr. Howe, was instructed to provide additional grub. The scrubs were instructed to furnish the wood for the big bonfire.

Under the brilliant rays of Harold Nye's searching spotlight perched upon the bleachers, almost two hundred open-eyed, jubilant, yelling young Americans, all sons of Glendale High, had the time of their lives Thursday evening on the school campus.

It was a time to let the reigns loose. The lid was raised, and every one of the one hundred eighty-six lads who were there took advantage of the fact. From the green little scrubbies to the dignified (ordinarily) Profs., every one opened up. Fun was king.

The Frosh had done a good job collecting wood, and the crackling bon-fire was a welcomed feature all the evening. After the tug-o'-war Mr. Moyse, Mr. Ferguson, Mr. Wight and Mr. Richardson addressed the circle, accompanied by the cheerful fire. School spirit was the key-note of their talks, and each speaker's stirring appeal for a closer union was cheered to the echo.

Ed Seay was everywhere with his magnificent voice and patriotic megaphone directing the various stunts. The sack races and the three-legged races furnished no end of fun. Between acts the fire was very popular.

The boxing matches probably furnished more fun than any other feature. Several members of the faculty took part. Mr. Houdyshel and Dan Hagin put on the heavyweight bout. Jack Marsh and Harry McCuskey fought the flee-weight battle. Miller Fischel and Ax West put on the funny stunt. Curly Williams knocked out Mr. Wight, taking as his prize the middleweight championship of Iceland.

Another notable feature was the refreshments, consisting at first of "dogs" and buns, and later of buns. The cafeteria was a popular resort at one time.

Before the bunch broke up to go home a circle around the fire sang folksongs and school songs. The finale was a rousing cheer for Principal Moyse.

May we have more of these splendid rallys.

With school spirit growing so rapidly, our debating and athletic teams should get good support. Tonight in the Auditorium Berna Martin and David Johnston will debate in favor of the Numbers Test for immigrants against Santa Ana's negative team. The Durand brothers will journey to Pomona with Mr. Root.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Anniversary Week.

Five years ago on Dec. 10 the present pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds came from Peoria, Ill., to take up the pastoral work in the Glendale Presbyterian church. In commemoration of these five years of faithful service an anniversary week will be celebrated from Dec. 10 to 16 inclusive.

Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock the pastor will preach the anniversary sermon reviewing somewhat the work the Lord has done in answer to the prayers and labors of His people. The evening service will be evangelistic for a further continuance of the work.

The Sunday School, Junior C. E. and the C. E. Societies will have in them anniversary notes of praise and thanksgiving.

The social event of the week will be the Brotherhood supper on Tuesday evening in the lecture room of the church at 6:30. Mr. T. D. Ogg the president of the Brotherhood, will be master of ceremonies. This assures all who attend a royal good time. Some of the former pastors and charter members will be guests of honor and give a word of greeting out of their memory of the past work.

Miss Ruth Byram is preparing a history of the church to be read, there will be special music and other pleasant features.

All friends are invited to the supper, only a nominal fee will be charged to cover the expense.

Wednesday evening at 7:30 the mid-week prayer meeting will be one of praise and thanksgiving for what the Lord has wrought. To look back at what has been done is an incentive to press forward to higher and better things, this is to be the spirit of this meeting.

Thursday evening in the Auditorium, the young people of the Sunday School and C. E. Society will render an appropriate program.

All members of the church and congregation and friends are invited to all the meetings of the anniversary week.

Friday at 7:45 p. m. Dr. J. R. Pratt will conduct the Popular Bible study, giving a most interesting study on Romans. Dr. Pratt is a rare Bible student, a man with a message, to hear him is to be edified, strengthened, and built up in the faith. Visitors always welcome.

Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock will be a Christmas party in the Bungalow for the primary department. This will be the close of a week long to be remembered and one that will stand out in the memory of this church. Some one has said it is the wooden anniversary of pastor and people. God grant that both pastor and people may continue of one mind and celebrate many more anniversary weeks.

N. club of the Glendale High school entertained the Bluebird club with a hike up the Big Tujunga canyan last Friday, with Dr. Glenn Hammond as chaperon They hiked as far as the Bryant camping place where the boys spread a bountiful dinner. Thanksgiving day in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Harding, on Summit Ave., was one of pleasure and one long to be remembered by those present. Mr. and Mrs. Harding who have both passed four score years were too feeble to take the trip to the city to the home of their friends, so their friends Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Martin and Miss Daisy Hartswell, loaded their seven passenger car with an 18-pound turkey all roasted and ready to serve and every good thing that goes to make up a perfect dinner and took possession of the Harding home to serve the Thanksgiving dinner. Covers were laid for eight: Mr. and Mrs. Harding and daughter, Mrs. Frisbee, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Miss Daisy Hartswell, and Mr. and Mrs. Cornwell as host and hostess. ARTISTIC TRIUMPH

The program presented last night by the Glendale Garden society proved in every sense of the word an artistic triumph. Seldom if ever was heard a more wonderful or attractive bird lecture than that given by Prof. Alfred Cookman of Long Beach. From start to finish the large audience, including almost one hundred boys, listened with rapt attention to the masterly and artistic talk entitled, "Our Feathered Friends from the Mountains to the Sea." Mr. Cookman's perfect delivery, finished oratory, his sense of humor, his delicate lights and shades, his perfect knowledge of the subject, his poetic appreciation of nature, combined with a most attractive and wholesome manly personality, furnished the audience with a joy and delight rarely experienced. Glendale was privileged last night to listen for half an hour to a popular lecture, which proved both a gem and a classic. Every boy in the hall, and grown-up person for that matter, crowded around Mr. Cookman at the close of his enthralling talk, to have the pleasure of personally meeting this gifted young man.

The musical feature of the evening was rendered by Miss Felice Jung of Los Angeles, who very graciously placed her unusual talents at the disposal of the Garden society. To adequately describe the beauty of her performance would be impossible. Thrills and warbles transported the audience in fancy to woodland fairy scenes, where beautiful song birds rioted with melody. Songs of the mocking bird, the whippoorwill and many others were heard to perfection. Together the charming whistler and the wonderful lecturer presented a program unequaled in artistic brilliancy. Fifteen happy young people received prizes, details of which will appear in tomorrow's paper.

The program for this entertainment is equal to anything ever given in Glendale, the first part consists of concert numbers, the second part will be given in costume. Those assisting Madame Yaw must be very clever people from the appearance of the program, but come and judge for yourselves. This entertainment is given for the benefit of the local lodge of Odd Fellows and the Lark Ellen Home for Newsboys.

SURPRISE DINNER.

When H. C. McBain of the Shaver Grocery Co. chose the last moments of the closing hour to engage C. W. Ingledue of the Glendale Market in earnest conversation, the latter thought he had chosen a rather unusual time, but it was all explained when he reached home. There he found that the employees instead of going to their different homes, as is their custom, had all gathered at his home. It was hard to believe that this scheme was worked out before his very eyes without arousing his suspicion, but he was forced to confess he was thoroughly surprised. Later all sat down to dinner at a table decorated in Yuletide colors, at which covers were laid for Mr. Richard Roberts and daughter, Miss Laura, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Eachus, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fishel, Mr. Hubert Buzzell, the host and his family. Mr. Ingledue has visions of many pleasant evenings, by the fireside wearing the very handsome slippers they left as a memento of the occasion. Miss Roberts also left an evidence of her aristry, a talent she possesses in no small degree.

Mrs. H. Lee Clotworthy of 150 West Tenth street, Tropico, has gone to join her husband at their mountain cabin, which is located about 22 miles back from Sierra Madre, where she expects to remain for about six months.

For the benefit of those not present last Saturday evening the officers announce that the next ball will be on Dec. 30 instead of the first Saturday in January.

Improvement Association

The La Crescenta Improvement Association regular meeting was held on Friday evening, Dec. 1st. The association had the pleasure of having Mr. Grant Friel, Mr. Carl Wersching of the Los Angeles County Road Department, who spoke on ways and means of road improvement, Mr. Flintham, Los Angeles County Forester made a very instructive address on trees, the planting and care of same along our roads. Those present had the opportunity to ask questions and were answered in a very pleasing and satisfactory manner. The information obtained at this meeting should be of great benefit to those interested in the improvement of La Crescenta Valley. Mr. A. C. Cobb, president of the association should have the support of every resident in the valley, his interest being entirely for the improvement and beautifying of the whole district.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Minford of La Crescenta have recently returned from a short trip to the San Diego fair. They were particularly delighted with the agricultural beauty of the fair grounds and in that respect they believe it surpassed San Ffancisco. Comparing the climate advantages Mr. Minford speaks of the air in San Diego as soft and soothing, but believes La Crescenta is more invigorating.

In the near future they are planning a trip to the Bay City, from there they will join friends and motor through the Sacramento Valley and Butte county en route to the Feather River Canyon where they will go into rough camp for bear hunting.

Mrs. Frances Capien accompanied by her young daughter, Louise departed on the early bus for Los Angeles and will endeavor to accomplish most of her Christmas shopping during the course of the day. She is a staunch believer in the slogan "Shop Early."
